Assessment

Assessments help determine the nature of the problem and/or the involvement with mood-altering substances and its effect on the lives of the individuals and family members.

Individual Counseling

Counselors work with individuals to help them identify problems and develop strategies to help them resolve issues that cause or contribute to the strain and disruption of their lives.

Group Counseling

Groups meet with a counselor as group members help each other identify and resolve the problems they are experiencing.

Intensive Outpatient Program

A treatment group which meets 3 times a week for a total of 8 hours per week and provides intensive treatment while allowing the individual to continue with everyday responsibilities such as work and family.

Prevention Education

Presentations and groups are available to individuals, schools, and community groups.

Suicide Prevention Coalition and Depression Recognition.

Pathways is coordinating the development of the Putnam County Coalition to help reduce suicide. Educators, law enforcement, ministers and health care workers have been in-serviced in recognizing depression, a major cause of suicide.

Adult/Adolescent Anger Management Group

These sessions are designed to deal with the impact of anger management on the individual, family and society.

Psychiatric Services

Psychiatric evaluations are provided by the physician. Medication education and monitoring are provided as needed.

Diversion

This program educates adolescents and young adults regarding the health, impairment and legal problems that may result from the use of alcohol.

The goal of our agency is to provide services for Putnam County residents and surrounding areas who are experiencing difficulties in day to day living. We provide referral and information, assessment, treatment, education, consultation, support and guidance depending on the nature of the problem and its severity. Services are available to children, adolescents, and adults within individual, group, or family settings.

Our professional staff members are experienced and knowledgeable in their respective disciplines and are credentialed as required by the State of Ohio.

WrapAround Services

WrapAround (Wrap) Services provide coordination of services for children in danger of "out of home placement". The Wrap Team consists of all parties supplying services, family members, school representatives and juvenile authorities. The goal is to provide the support necessary to keep families together.

Community Support Services

Support services are available to assist clients with linkages to necessary services to facilitate treatment.

Mental Health Education

The staff offers programs such as educational presentations and support groups. These programs are available to individuals and organizations.

Housing Services

Group homes, independent living apartments, community support services, supervised support services and a housing assistance program assist clients in gaining independence.

Putnam Adolescent Response Team for Youth (P.A.R.T.Y.)

This program offers youth a substance free environment for developing leadership skills, cooperative learning and socialization. Open to all high school students.

Socialization Skill Building

Children learn methods and skills for improving relationships with peers. Skills include: managing bullies and teasing, developing self-esteem, managing peer pressure, developing listening and communication skills, developing problem solving skills, good sportsmanship and cooperation, and making good choices and decisions.
